

UPPER THAMES RIVER CONSERVATION AUTHORITY

AODA Integrated Accessibility Standards Policy and Plan

APPROVED: DECEMBER 10, 2013

AODA Integrated Accessibility Standards Policy and Plan

Purpose

The Integrated Accessibility Standards (Regulation 191/11) (IASR) under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (AODA) came into force on July 1, 2011. The regulation establishes standards to address barriers that persons with disabilities face in the areas of information and communications, employment, and transportation. The requirements under these standards are not a replacement or substitution for the requirements of the Ontario Human Rights Code.

The purpose of this policy and work plan is to ensure that the Upper Thames River Conservation Authority (UTRCA) complies with the Government of Ontario's integrated accessibility standards.

Application and Scope

This policy applies to UTRCA employees, Board members and volunteers.

Current Status: All members and staff have been trained on the AODA Customer Service Standard but not on the IASR.

Plan to Improve: All staff will complete web based IASR training by December 31, 2014. This will be achieved by providing staff with an instruction sheet outlining the IASR training requirements and links to IASR training videos supplied by AccessForward and the Ontario Human Rights Commission. Staff will also be required to read UTRCA's IASR Policy Plan. Once staff have completed the IASR training, they will be required to sign the instruction sheet and submit it to Human Resources as proof of training.

6. Information and Communications

6.1. Feedback

The UTRCA will ensure that its processes for receiving and responding to feedback are accessible to persons with disabilities and will notify the public about the availability of accessible formats and communications supports.
